National Road & Zane Grey Museum
8850 East Pike, Norwich, Ohio 43767
800-752-2602 or 740-872-3143

Thursday, May 28 through Saturday, May 30 (9 a.m. – 5 p.m.)

Vendor Information

The National Road & Zane Grey Museum will open their parking lot to individuals and groups who wish to sell items and/or promote their business upon acceptance of their application on a first-come, first-served basis. Spaces will be approximately 10' x 20' and one vehicle will be permitted in the space. No tables or chairs will be provided and electricity will not be available. There is no cost for a space but donations to support the museum's educational programming are appreciated.

Vendors are to remain within or near their space area and are not permitted to walk around promoting their product. Organizations of a political nature will not be allowed. Any harassment of patrons or unauthorized sale of merchandise will result in immediate expulsion from the grounds. Museum officials have the right to refuse use of space for sale of anything they deem inappropriate or in bad taste.

Vendors who wish to participate more than one day are strongly encouraged to remove all of their items at the end of each day. The National Road & Zane Grey Museum is not responsible for stolen or damaged property and is not liable for any injury to individuals participating in the National Road Yard Sale.

Please complete and return the application below as soon as possible to secure a space. Applications will be accepted pending approval.
